ILL LUCK AGAIN FOR YOUNG MAN

Walter Smith, the Victim of Many Accidents, Had Narrow Escape Today.

WAS INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Fearlessly he Ran After Runaway Team, Jumped up on Tongue, and Stopped the Horses

It seems that the gods have ordained that Walter Smith, a young man living in East Ninth street, shall meet with violent death, or at least that he shall go through this life forever meeting accidents for he was the victim of what had all the aspects of a disastrous one this morning. In the past few years, Smith has been the central figure in no less than ten accidents, some in which he had a narrow escape with his life.

He was employed today driving one of the city wagons used in the Clean-Up Day exercises, when the team became frightened and started running at breakneck speed near the east side of the court house square. Smith was on the ground, but ran and jumped into the wagon and out on the tongue to get hold of the lines dragging in the street. In this perilous position his body was wrenched and shaken and he was thrown violently first from one horse to the other and only escaped after sustaining a few bruises on the body, a sprained ankle, one rib broken and an injured hip.

People who saw the accident thought the young man was surely doomed for an untimely death as he was having little success in checking the frantic animals and his presence on the tongue and jostling against their sides only served to egg them on in their mad flight. Near the corner of Perkins and Second streets, Smith managed to pull on one line and run the horses up on the little lawn by the Republican building. Down the sidewalk they plunged, taking down a small tree in their wake, and Noley Newkirk, an enthusiastic Clean-Up Day worker, who had just staked off a grass plot, had to jump into a basement to escape being run down.

Smith has had an exciting and eventful career. At various times both his arms were broken, one of his legs broken, his ribs broken, a hip dislocated, and one or two of his fingers cut off in a furniture factory; he also had one eye severely injured in an accident and another time was accidentally shot with a rifle in the hands of another. Last winter he barely escaped death when lightning struck the home where he resides just as the family was getting ready to sit down to the evening meal. Had they all been in their places, it would have been fatal.

Smith displayed bravery today and stayed with the horses until he stopped them, but it was foolhardy in the boy taking a chance to stop them. He was taken home in a buggy shortly after the accident.

Owner of Horse Killed by the I. & C.
Traction Car Tells How the Accident Occurred.

WAS FRIGHTENED AT AN AUTO

The horse killed by the I. & C. traction car west of the city Sunday night belonged to George Rusk, residing east of Milton, says the Connersville Examiner. Mr. Rusk had driven the animal to Dublin and had tied her to a hitchrack. An automobile came along and the horse frightened, broke away from the rack and started on a wild run. She had run twelve miles when she turned off the road and started west on the interurban tracks.

Mr. Rusk was in the city today investigating the matter. He said he valued the rig at $160.

The horse broke away from the rack at Dublin about 7:30 and was killed about 11:30.

NEWSPAPER MAN KILLED IN WEST

Nephew of Oliver Nash, of This City, Victim in a Gasoline Explosion.

WAS FORTY YEARS OF AGE

Was Employed as a Reporter and Printer on a Newspaper Near Seattle, Washington.

Richard Nash, a nephew of Oliver Nash of North Jackson street this city, was killed near Seattle, Wash., in a gasoline explosion. The Connersville News has the following account of the story: "A Seattle newspaper, forwarded by F. R. Beeson, and received by Hon. R. N. Elliott contains the likeness of Richard Nash, a first cousin of Mr. Elliott, and the tragic story of his death. Mr. Nash, who was both printer and reporter on the Rainier Valley Record, published in a country town near Seattle, fell a victim to a gasoline explosion that occurred in the printing office on May 5th.

Deceased was forty years old. He was the grandson of Richard Nash, a pioneer of this county, long since dead, and a son of Thomas Nash of Tipton, Ind., where he was reared. He was a nephew of Oliver Nash, formerly of this county, but now of Rushville, and was related to the Elliott, Moffett and other of the older families of this community.

CLEAN-UP DAY HERE IN ALL ITS GLORY

Would be Futile to Try to Express in Mere Words, the Benefits to Follow.

IT IS NOW A CITY BEAUTIFUL

Clean-Up Day was all that could be expected of it. It would be difficult, or rather impossible, to measure in mere words the vast benefits to be derived from such occasions. First, there is the health of the city. It is an undisputed fact that much of the sickness comes from filth. Then the beauty of the city means much to every resident, for who is it that does not take pride in showing strangers around through the long lanes of giant maples that stand sentinel-like on either side of all the principal streets. Rushville is indeed a city of beautiful homes and well kept lawns—the City Beautiful of Eastern Indiana.

Enough trash was put in "neat" piles in alleys over the city today to keep Street Commissioner Havens and his corps of men with teams, busy for several days, hauling it off to the dump grounds.

IRVIN IN A NEAR TRAGEDY

Banker Cleared Traction Track by Coolly Putting on Full Speed.

Arthur B. Irvin had a narrow escape from death yesterday morning at Glenwood when he came very near being run down by the east-bound Connersville dispatch. He was on the track before he saw the fast flying car which was within a few feet of him, and had to put on full speed to clear the track. He barely got over when the car whizzed by.

ARE WAGING A FIERCE CONTEST

Former Rush County Boys Conducting War Against City Administration of Terre Haute.

ORDERED TO LEAVE THE CITY

Answered Through Paper That They Would Stay Until Red-Light
District Was Cleaned Out.

Clifford Lee, who was here one night last week on a detour to escape a detective, who was on his tracks, is now having some exciting experiences in Terre Haute, where he is employed together with Lloyd Henley, a former Carthage boy, in cleaning out the city administration. They are waging a terrific war against the mayor and all of the officials, bringing to light numerous things which the citizens of Terre Haute did not know existed. The battle is not without many interesting features, for the mayor and all of his helpers are fighting back like enraged cats when placed in a corner. They have employed two lawyers on the case and are putting up a fight which is opening the eyes of the mayor and the police.

The mayor of Terre Haute, James Lyones, who is a candidate for superintendent of the Jeffersonville reformatory, has at last become so enraged that he has given Lee and Henley just twenty-four hours to get out of the city, informing them that he would get them if they did not move out and stay out. Henley informed the mayor through the paper that they intended to stay there until they cleaned out the red light district and perhaps a little while longer, too. Their work has not been in vain as they have succeeded in getting the police active on two or three occasions. Just yesterday morning the police court was filled with denizens of the tough district and they were not in a very happy frame of mind when they thought of facing prosecution after a time, when they have been allowed to run free.

Exercised over the conditions brought to light by the newspaper men in the vicinity of the James Hook school district, one hundred citizens of Terre Haute called on the mayor and demanded that he clean out that portion of the town. Positive information was furnished him that these immoral resorts existed in this locality. He told the delegation that he had known these places had flourished for years in this district of the city and he gave his promise that he would remove them. The work of the two former Rush county boys has not been without good results in their crusade against the rotten administration and they hope to even gain more in the near future.

NEWSPAPER TO HIT THE SHOALS

New Castle Tribune, a Stockholder Enterprise is Almost a Complete Loss.

STOCKHOLDERS TO LOSE ALL

A Widow, Who Took $500 Stock,
Among the Victims—Competition Was Too Stiff.

The New Castle Morning Tribune plant, into which a large amount of good money seems to have been poured before Expectation and Experience had made each other's acquaintance, has been appraised for less than $2000. A similar story will soon be ready for publication in this city. The Courier says:

An order of court was received Saturday, by C. O. Hammond, receiver for the Tribune Company, to offer the plant and equipment for sale at private sale from day to day unto and including Monday, May 24. According to the terms of the order the sale of the plant may be consummated any day after Thursday, May 13, when the legal notice of sale will appear.

The order includes all of the personal property of the defendant company and it will be sold to the highest bidder for cash. It is generally understood that a member of the company will buy the entire plant in order to save himself, as he is the heaviest creditor of the concern, having sunk several thousand dollars in the project. The appraisers have completed their work and list the property at $1977, including $650, which had been paid on a typesetting machine.

Some of the stockholders will lose practically everything they put into the company. For them there is much compassion particularly for a widow who subscribed and paid in $500. Then there are one or two others who will receive a severe financial blow and who can ill afford the loss.

WOMAN'S BEAUTY.

It Comes Only to Those Who Take Care of Their Hair.

Have you seen a pretty face with regular features, clear skin, pearly teeth and plenty of animation and vivacity, and yet remarked that there was something lacking that really made the individual less charming than her sister of plainer possessions? A moment's study of such a face will show you that it is a want of luxuriant hair which makes the difference.

The woman who wishes to retain her youth must look after her hair — the woman with scant, unattractive hair is never admired.

Society women realize the truth of this statement and that is why so many of New York's loveliest women demand that Parisian Sage be used by their hair dressers.

Parisian Sage is now on sale in nearly every town of consequence in America, and has enormous sales wherever it has been introduced.

It is guaranteed by F. B. Johnson & Co. to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

It will make any woman's harsh and unattractive hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant in a few days. It is the ideal, delightful, rejuvenating tonic that makes hair grow; it is not sticky or greasy, but on the other hand is most pleasant and daintily perfumed.

In Memory of Mrs. Martha Morris.

Thou art gone our aged mother,
To that bright land above;
While we are sad and lonely,
Thou art basking in His love.

A vacant chair is in our home,
A voice we loved is stilled;
We miss thy presence everywhere,
Thy place can ne'er be filled.

On earth there is no solace,
Like a mother's love;
Now that voice is calling us
To that bright land above.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
And in Heaven again to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.
M. E. DeR.

MRS. MARTHA MORRIS.

Mrs. Martha Morris was born September 27th, 1823, in Fleming county, Kentucky, and died May 5th, 1909, aged 85 years, 7 months and 8 days. She was the last of thirteen children of John and Jane Oliver, who moved to this county when the deceased was four years of age, and has resided here since that time.

She was married in 1847 to John B. Morris, who died February 17th, 1869. To this union were born eight children, five of whom survive her. She is also survived by fifteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Since the death of her husband she has resided at Arlington, with the exception of the last three years, which she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Laura Wolverton, of this city.

She had been in poor health for the last three years, in which time she has been a patient sufferer and never feared the end she knew was soon to come.

She was ever prominent in church work and could always be depended upon in acts of charity. She became a member of St. Paul's M. E. church at the age of fifteen, but for the last forty years has been a member of the Arlington M. E. church, and also a member of the Aid Society, being the oldest member in age.

The deceased is survived by five children, Miss Anna Morris of Chicago; Mrs. Chira Sisson of Gas City, Ind.; Geo. N. Morris of Greenwood, Miss.; Mrs. Hattie Bagley of near Arlington, and Mrs. Laura Wolverton of this city.

Card of Thanks.

The children of Mrs. Martha Morris desire to extend their heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends, neighbors and relatives, especially Dr. VanOsdol and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. A traveling salesman boarded the nine-twenty-one car here yesterday morning after having purchased a ticket, says the Shelbyville Republican. It was his intention to go to Greensburg. The "con" told him that he was not in Greensburg but in Indianapolis, and then he raised "Cain" because he had taken the wrong car. He said he pulled into the place two hours late.

TRACTIONS WILL CARRY BAGGAGE

Agreed Upon at a Meeting of Inter-urban Officials in Indianapolis Tuesday.

WILL BEGIN ABOUT JULY FIRST

Decided to Adopt Steam Road Basis on Account of Inconveniences to Their Patrons.

All interurban railroad companies in Indiana will carry baggage on the same basis as steam roads, beginning about July 1, says the Indianapolis Star. This was agreed upon at a meeting of interurban officials Tuesday, when the baggage question was the topic of discussion. The interurban roads have carried baggage only on a limited scale heretofore because their officials did not believe that the laws governing the carriage of baggage affected electric lines.

The decision to adopt the steam roads' basis as regards baggage carrying was reached in view of the inconvenience caused the patrons of the electric lines. The Indiana Railroad Commission was informed of the action taken at the conference, and the schedules affecting the carrying of excess baggage will be filed with the commission as soon as possible.

The following traction companies were represented at the conference: The Indiana Union Traction Company; Ft. Wayne & Wabash Valley Traction Company; Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction Company; Indianapolis & Cincinnati; Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern; Indianapolis & Louisville; Louisville & Northern Railway Company; Evansville & Southern Indiana; Chicago, South Bend & Northern Indiana Railway Company, and the Indianapolis, Crawfordsville & Western Traction Company.

MADE IT PERMANENT

Injunction Against Issuing Saloon License in Clay County.

Brazil, Ind., May 12.—Judge Rawley has given his decision in the Powers liquor license case. He made permanent the injunction restraining County Auditor Burns from issuing a license to run a saloon in the Fourth ward in this city.

Judge Fortune, at Terre Haute, last Friday ruled in favor of Powers and issued a court order for Burns to issue a license to Powers. A few minutes later Judge Rawley, in Putnam county, issued a temporary restraining order, and injunction papers reached Burns first. The question of dissolving the restraining order was then argued before Judge Rawley, in this city.

In his decision, the court made the order permanent and stated emphatically that no saloon license should be granted in Clay county for two years. Attorneys for Powers argued that Judge Rawley had no right to issue such an order in the same jurisdiction as Judge Fortune. Judge Rawley will give his verdict on this point later. There is great rejoicing among the "drys" over the victory, as much interest has been taken in the case.

OVERCROWDED BOAT GOES TO THE BOTTOM

Twenty Steel Workers Drowned Near Pittsburgh.

Pittsburg, May 12.—Twenty persons are missing and all of them are believed to have been drowned when a gasoline launch sank in the middle of the Ohio river near Schoenville, four miles below Pittsburg, last night. Of the thirty occupants of the boat, only ten are known to have escaped. All the men were employees of the Pressed Steel Car company at the McKees Rocks plants, and had left the works to cross the river in the launch. The boat is said to have been intended for only twenty persons and is said that it was dangerous to attempt to carry as many as twenty-five in it. But all the men wanted to get across the river on the first trip of the boat and thirty of them crowded in. When the boat reached the middle of the stream where the water is perhaps twenty feet deep, it suddenly sank.

There was no explosion, no leak was sprung, but the boat simply sank beneath the weight it had been bearing and went to the bottom. As it sank, it caused a suction which took many of the men down with it. Others attempted to swim ashore but were chilled by the cold water and became exhausted before reaching the shore. So far as is known, but ten of the men reached the shore.

MRS. ROBIN HAS A MOVING HOME

Lady Redbreast Will Raise Her Young on Box Car Journal in Richmond Yards.

TRAVELED HUNDREDS OF MILES

Came all the Way From New York Where the Nest Was Built and Eggs Layed.

—Mrs. Alvan Moor and Mrs. John Blackledge spent the day in Indianapolis.

A Pennsylvania freight car No. 16656, though relieved of its burden and under company rules ready to be reloaded and sent on its endless journey, is being held on a side track in Richmond awaiting the day that a dainty Mrs. Robin Redbreast shall have hatched out three sky-blue eggs that lie at the bottom of a nest on a journal box of the car.

The strange part of the story is that the nest was built and the eggs laid in New York City, the car having left "Piers 4 and 5, Pennsylvania yards, April 28," as the tag on the car's side indicates. The car came through to Richmond laden with goods for a wholesale grocery house and on its arrival May 1st, William Neamen, car inspector, discovered the nest with Mrs. Robin Redbreast on guard. The car was unloaded and with great care was then backed on a siding, where it has since remained and where it will stay, despite rules of the Pennsylvania company to the contrary.

The local officials of the company have no complaints to offer. The journey of more than six hundred miles to Richmond must have been made with the robin on her nest most of the time. Since arriving at Richmond, however, the mother has left her nest at intervals and the railway boys say she seems to understand that she is among friends. When the eggs are hatched, if it is believed practical, the young birds and the nest may be transferred to the eaves of a nearby building, but the chances are that Car 16656 will be tied up for a month to come, waiting the day that the youngsters can fly. The nest rests at the very edge of the journal box, but the mother bird ingeniously "cemented" it to its resting place with daubs of mud.

The Newspaper Guy

I see a man pushing his way through the lines
Of cops where the work of the "fire fiend" shines.

"The Chief," I inquired, but a fireman replies:
"Gee, no! Why that's one o' them newspaper guys."

I see a man walk through the door of a show,
Where great throngs are blocked by the sign, "S. R. O."

"Is this man the star, that no ticket he buys?"
"Star nothin'! He's one o' those newspaper guys."

I see a man start on the trail of a crook,
And he scorns the police, but he brings him to book.

"Sherlock Holmes?" I inquire—
"Someone scornfully cries:
"Sherlock h—! Naw, he's one o' dese newspaper guys."

I see a man sit in the seats of the great,
And they ask his advice upon matters of State.

"A diplomat surely!" But to my surprise,
They tell me he's one of those newspaper guys.

And some day I'll stand by the great gates of gold,
And see a man pass through unquestioned and bold;

"A saint?" I will ask, and old Peter'll reply:
"No he carries a pass—he's a newspaper guy!"

What Some of the Papers Said

(Indianapolis Star.)

The Rushville chapter of the Tri Kappa sorority published Saturday's edition of the Rushville Daily Republican. The young women (twenty-four in number) covered the ground thoroughly and even succeeded in "scooping" the other local paper.

The large variety of editors made the work light for each one and gave them opportunity to get good "stories."

Several very clever "stunts" were arranged, which made the paper look better than the ordinary edition. The editor of the paper gave the girls full sway and allowed them to insert anything that struck their fancy.

No sensation "stories" broke, for which the feminine editors are thankful. Numerous clever articles were written, in which the reporters expressed their opinion and did not stay within the limit of the facts. The court reporter expressed the opinion that an old man in a damage suit in the circuit court should get the damages for which he asked because he was such a "nice looking old man," and was represented by such a fine looking young lawyer.

(Greenfield Tribune.)

The Tri-Kappa girls who edited Rushville Republican Saturday, gave Tyner damage case from this city the following write up which shows how carefully they observed and brought out the main points in the case:

"Cyrus Tyner from Greenfield has a case here in the court house. He is an old man. He seems to be awfully nice and poor old fellow ought to get the damage he asks. He has best looking attorney, some young fellow from Greenfield. He wore a lovely plain blue serge with a poka dot cravat. He also had a dainty mustache as soft—apparently—as his easy voice. Judge Sparks is hearing the case."

(Shelbyville Republican.)

Saturday's issue of the Rushville Republican, which was put out by the Tri Kappa sorority, was well gotten up and showed that the young ladies have a large amount of newspaper talent.

(Franklin Star.)

The Saturday issue of the Rushville Republican, edited by the Tri Kappa girls, contained a view of the Country Club grounds. There is one

INDIANA POLITICS

ROBERT G. TUCKER.

Indianapolis, May 12.—Representatives of virtually all the railroads operating in the state debated among themselves and with the railroad commission of Indiana in a conference as to whether it would be better to disregard the full crew law and stand the consequences in court, or to obey the law to the letter. The conference adjourned with no decision as to what should be done in the matter.

The law, which specifies the number of men which shall constitute a crew where the company operates more than two trains each way each day, was declared by the railroad men to be a ridiculous measure, and passed without a proper inquiry into the needs of the railroads, or into the needs of the railway employees.

The bill was introduced in the house at the instigation of organized trainmen and was handled as an organized labor measure.

For the time being, Attorney-General Bingham is said to have obtained a toe-hold on the alleged fire insurance combine in Indiana. As a result of a restraining order issued against 130 companies, Thomas McMurray, Jr., of the Indianapolis fire inspection bureau, and E. M. Sellers, of the Indiana fire inspection bureau, the bureaus have served notice on agents that they will not furnish any more ratings on risks until the injunction is dissolved. Local agents will have to inspect their own risks and report the same to their companies for the present. Attorney-General Bingham insists that the maintenance of the rating bureaus is a part of the scheme of the 130 defendants to control rates. The attorney-general has gone to New York, it is said, to obtain further evidence in the case.

No world's fair schemes for Indianapolis in 1911. Sometime ago a glib promoter succeeded in convincing some of the leading business men here that this city was "ripe" for a world's fair. Committees were organized to boost the event and much enthusiasm was worked up. The Commercial club directors have decided against the project but favored a plan for creating sentiment for an exposition in 1916 to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the admission of Indiana as a state.

Civil service rules have been applied by Governor Marshall to the applicants for the position of secretary of the state board of forestry. He has written to each applicant asking him to submit a manuscript setting forth his ideas of the work of the department. There are several ambitious Democrats who want to succeed Wm. H. Freeman as secretary. The latter will retire the first of next month. The governor, at that time, will appoint a new forestry board.

Applicants for census supervisors are becoming numerous in every congressional district in the state. Senator Beveridge will have the appointment of the directors in all districts except the Sixth and Tenth, which have Republican congressmen. H. G. Hargrove and John Engleke are active candidates for the appointment in this district. The job pays about $2,000 here, and on an average of $1,500 in the other districts.

An order has been issued by the railroad commission, in compliance with a law enacted during the recent session of the legislature, that all railroads shall, within the next ninety days, equip their freight and passenger trains with a medical case for the benefit of persons injured in wrecks or accidents. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen obtained the enactment of the law.

Bishop Hartzell Sails to Look After Missions in That Field.

New York, May 12.—Among the passengers on the Oceanic, sailing for England today, was Bishop Joseph C. Hartzell, Methodist Episcopal bishop for Africa, who left for a four-months' visit to the field in which he has spent the latter years of his life.

After holding conferences there with the missionary workers and attending to matters of administration he will return to the United States in the fall to resume the work of the Methodist African diamond jubilee campaign, instituted last winter to mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the sending of the first Methodist missionary to Africa.

Brandenburg Ceases Resistance.

San Francisco, May 12.—Broughton Brandenburg, the newspaper man and magazine writer, charged with grand larceny in connection with the sale of an article purporting to have been written by Grover Cleveland, created a surprise by waiving extradition and agreeing to return East without further resistance. The writ of habeas corpus obtained in his behalf was dismissed.

PARIS FACES GREAT STRIKE

Orders Given to Tie Up the Entire Postal System.

CRISIS IN AFFAIRS OF STATE

The Fate of the Clemenceau Government Depends Upon the Disposition of the Present Crisis Which Has Been Precipitated By the Decision of the Federal Committee of the Postal Employees to Go On General Strike.—Orders Given That Not a Letter Is to Move in France Today.

Paris, May 12.—The chamber of deputies after a stormy session of four hours adjourned the debate on the interpellations on the postal situation until May 13. The response of the postal employees was quick and decisive. Within half an hour the federal committee had issued an order for a general strike and the railway mail clerks walked out in a body. An hour later a meeting of 6,000 postal employees at the Hippodrome took up the gage of battle and unanimously voted to strike. There was no great enthusiasm shown, but determination and resolution to force the hand of the government was apparent.

"The government is playing for time; we must not be caught napping," was the spirit of the meeting as expressed by Pauron, a dismissed postman, and one of the most active organizers of the movement. The government was charged with failure to keep its promises at the conclusion of the previous strike, especially with regard to the retirement of M. Simyan, under secretary of posts and telegraphs.

M. Deschanel considered the crisis very grave. He laid the responsibility for the present situation largely on "parliamentarism," which he said was working in a vicious circle, and he considered that the only remedy would be the introduction of real civil service, based on merit, to end favoritism and the spoils system.

M. Barthou, minister of public works, the government's only spokesman, insisted that neither he nor Premier Clemenceau had promised Secretary Simyan's dismissal. He produced the official journal as proof of what he had said. The minister reaffirmed the government's unalterable opposition to conceding the right of state employees to form a syndicate, as there was no analogy between their case and that of ordinary workmen, who are not protected against stoppage of work, and are not guaranteed promotion and pensions in old age.

"If parliament asks us to reverse our attitude," continued M. Barthou, "we will retire and leave to others the abdication which would be a mortal blow to the imprescriptible rights that parliament holds from the nation and to the essential, vital and permanent interests of the nation itself."

Dispatchers have been received from many cities, announcing the sympathy and support not only of the postal employees, but the various trades unions. The miners congress now in session at Lens also pledged aid. The president of the committee declared that not a letter must leave Paris today.

RETURN CIVIL WAR TROPHY

Ohio Veterans Testify to Era of Good Feeling by Restoring Captured Flag.

Huntsville, Ala., May 12.—Bearing testimony to the kindly feelings that have arisen between the north and south since the close of the civil war, the welcome of Alabama to the northern veterans who came here to return a captured Confederate battle-flag was warm and heartfelt.

The ten men who came here to return today in peace the flag taken in war forty-four years ago are veterans of the Fourth Ohio cavalry, which won the trophy from an Alabama regiment. They were greeted by the members of the local camp of the United Confederate Veterans, the Daughters of the Confederacy and other bodies.

The flag returned today was captured in a spirited engagement at Selma, Ala., in April, 1865, almost the last fight of the war. Since then it has rested in the Ohio capitol as a memento of the war.

Two Victims of Gas.

Indianapolis, May 12.—Mrs. Martha Manlove, aged sixty, and J. W. Hankins, fifty-two, a roomer in the Manlove home, at 819 College avenue, were killed by escaping gas which entered the house from an overlooked connection when the new gas company's gas was turned into the mains.

Stiffer Golf Course For Rockefeller.

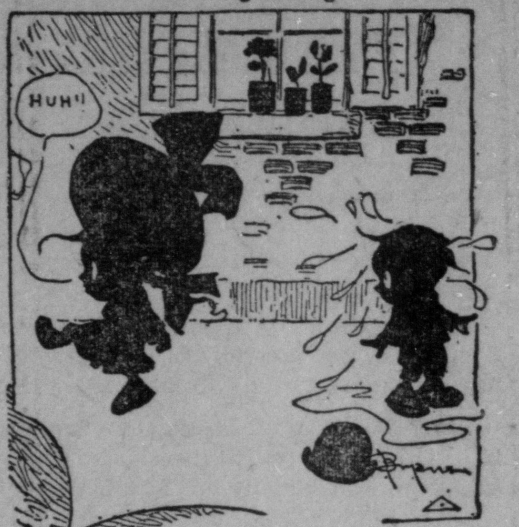

John D. Rockefeller, the oil king, has become so expert as a golfer that the course at his big estate, Forest Hill, near Cleveland, O., is not stiff enough for him. In order to make it more difficult he has decided to add ten bunkers. More will be built later.

Mr. Rockefeller spends hours every summer day at Forest Hill driving the golf balls. He is no amateur with the sticks, as he has proved on many occasions. He recently wrote his superintendent that he wanted the course ready early, and he wanted it "stiff."

To Raise Biggest American Flag.

Flag day, June 14, will probably be marked by the raising of the largest flag in the United States in Lincoln park, Chicago, before the statue of the martyred president. The American Flag Day association has issued an appeal to the various patriotic associations to raise funds for it.

Tonight he will sink into slumber with at least one eye and one ear open, and if Old Sol comes up before the "kidlet" tumbles out of bed and into the street, the parents of the child should consult a physician at once, for there is something radically wrong with him.

Sun Bros. circus, with Sultana, the Goliath sacred black camel from Africa, the only genuine specimen ever imported to America, will be here tomorrow.

The Ortmann Sisters, the most undisputed owners of the flying trapeze world has ever known. The famous herd of military and comedy elephants, massive monsters; full line of lions, seals, ponies, monkeys, dogs, horses, in fact a real live jungle in the midst—nothing like this production ever produced here before. Big free attraction on the show grounds at twelve-thirty. Parade at ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace theater will have a complete change of bill tonight and which will only be shown tonight, another change to be made tomorrow night.

At the Vaudet theater tonight will be shown a subject teeming with interest and with class. It is entitled "Origin of Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata." Miss Clara Gregg will sing the illustrated song "Never No More."

When the Wayne company comes to the Auditorium in Connersville for a two night engagement, commencing Friday night, they will present "The Governor, the Girl and the Wise Guy." If it was asked what especial feature this production appeals most strongly to the public, it would be hard to answer, because of the variety of features offered. Taking the musical comedy as a whole, it might be argued that the consistency of its construction and general wholesome tone of the play is the best feature of its successfulness. The music is catchy, the specialties are all good, the comedy is clever, the chorus is big and effective, the cast is, without question, the best obtainable, the stage effects are striking and the play itself is one of the season's successes. "The Circus Girl" will be the bill Saturday night. Special prices, 35 and 50 cents.

Always smoke DEMMERS BOND—5 cents.

It is Said That ---

They will play the "Devil" at the five-cent theaters Friday and Saturday nights.

Many husbands had to get up last night and let their wives in who came home with a "package."

A woman never likes to wear her new hat to the theater because she is not permitted to show it off.

Unlucky Call On Old Sweetheart. Valparaiso, Ind., May 12.—John Graveline, of Watseka, Ill., is charged with stealing a pocketbook containing $400 from a woman on a C. & E. I. railway train, near Danville, Ill. He eluded the officers in Chicago and would have escaped for Canada, but for stopping off here to visit an old sweetheart. He was arrested by the police here.

INDIAN MOTHER'S SACRIFICE.

Cut Flesh From Her Body For Bait In Order to Feed Her Children.

William P. McKirdy confirms the story that an Indian woman living north of Port Arthur, Ont., cut flesh from her body recently in an effort to secure food for her children when they were starving.

Mr. McKirdy says that the woman and children were in desperate straits. The last scrap of food had been eaten days before and there was no game, though the woman hunted until her strength was gone.

In this pitiable condition she cut a strip of flesh from her body. This flesh she used as bait with which to catch fish and thus sustain life until help arrived.

Alligator With Ear For Music. A seven foot alligator has been disporting himself in the canal near Pine street bridge at Fort Pierce, Fla. He has afforded much amusement for the school children, for the gator has evidently a musical ear. He only appears when singing is going on in the school. When this fact became known a number of the children went to the bridge and to the strains of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," sung by them he lazily came from his hiding place and enjoyed the impromptu concert. The experiment has been repeated several times with success.

Miami University's Centennial. Miami university, the oldest of Ohio's colleges, will celebrate her centennial at Oxford June 12-18. It is expected that more than 2,000 alumni and former students will gather on the campus at Oxford. The first invitation issued was sent to President Taft, who is interested in Miami university because his father-in-law, John W. Heron of Cincinnati, since 1880 has been president of the board of that institution. Whitelaw Reid, ambassador to Great Britain, of the class of 1856, has also promised to be present if possible.

Bird Sanctuary In Town Common. The growth of the garden city, Letchworth, in England, threatens to drive birds to more secluded spots. To prevent this the directors propose to convert Norton common, in the center of the town, into a bird sanctuary. Here weeds, grasses, berries and fruits of various kinds which are pleasing to birds will be cultivated, and part of the common will be fenced in for nesting.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Nearly Every one in Albion, Mich.,
Praises Mi-o-na, the Money-
Back Cure for Indigestion.

Albion, Mich.—The people in Albion are elated to an unusual extent because of the many and remarkable cures which have lately been made by Mi-o-na, a dyspepsia cure with a world-wide reputation. Everybody is endorsing Mi-o-na. Here is what some respected residents say:

Mrs. E. C. Cass says: "Mi-o-na cured me of stomach trouble that had bothered me a long time."

W. H. Mott says: "I had doctored for months without help. I used Mi-o-na and since using it three years ago I have been free from distress."

Mrs. Emma Overy says: "For months I had dyspepsia, bad stomach distress, pains and nausea.
Nothing I used relieved or cured till
I used Mi-o-na."

F. B. Johnson & Co., the druggist in Rushville sells the wonderful dyspepsia cure Mi-o-na for 50 cents a large box and he thinks so well of it, that he will give your money back if it doesn't cure.

the tiller up, and the catboat slid away, breath.

parched throat he could have shouted in his elation when eventually he gained the point of intersection an eighth of a mile ahead of the brigantine and got sight of her windward freeboard as most slowly the catboat forged across her course.

For all that, the moment of his actual triumph was not yet. He had still to carry off successfully a scheme that for sheer audacity of conception and contempt for danger transcended all that had gone before.

Holding the catboat on for a time, he brought her about handsomely a little way beyond the brigantine's course and hung in the eye of the wind, the leach flapping and tightening with reports like rifle shots and the water sloshing about his calves—bailing dish now altogether out of mind—while he watched the oncoming vessel, his eyes glistening with anticipation.

She was footing it smartly, the brigantine, lying down to it and snoring into the wind. Beneath her stem waves broke in snow white showers, whiter than the canvas of her bulging jib—broke and, gnashing their teeth in impotent fury, swirled and eddied down her sleek dark flanks. Bobbing, courtesying, she plunged onward, shortening the interval with mighty, leaping bounds. On her bows with each instant the golden letters of her name grew larger and more legible until—Alethea—he could read it plain beyond dispute.

Joy welled in his heart. He forgot all that he had undergone in the prospect of what he proposed still to do in the name of the only woman the world held for him. Unquestioning he had come thus far in her service; unquestioning, by her side, he was prepared to go still further, though all humanity should single her out with accusing fingers.

To be Continued.

CAPTAIN HAINS FOUND GUILTY

Jury Brands Crime as First Degree Manslaughter—Prisoner to be Sentenced Monday.

TWENTY YEARS IN PRISON

This is the Maximum Penalty Prescribed by New York Laws For Degree of Crime.

Flushing, N. Y., May 12.—The jury in the case of Capt. Peter C. Hains, U. S. A., charged with the murder of William E. Annis, on August 15, 1908, CAPTAIN P. C. HAINS, JR.

brought in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree. The jury had been out four hours. The defendant was remanded to the custody of the sheriff for sentence Monday.

Quickly following the young army officer's conviction, his counsel announced that they would produce affidavits to show that the jury had not been properly guarded during the trial and upon this allegation will urge that a new trial be granted. The affidavits will be submitted on Monday, the time set for passing sentence and for any motions that the defendant's counsel desire to make. There will, of course, be the usual motions to set aside the verdict as against the weight of evidence and contrary to law, but the unguarded jury feature is the only departure from the stereotyped procedure looking to a new trial. Unlike the scenes attending the trial of Thornton Hains, the defendant's brother, who was acquitted of complicity in the same crime, there was no demonstration in court when the verdict was rendered. As he heard the decision of the jurors, Hains' face was white as chalk. He stood for a few moments motionless, staring at the jury after he heard the verdict. Then one of his lawyers touched him and he quietly sat down.

A few moments later, apparently little affected by the verdict he walked from the court room with a steady stride between his two lawyers, and was taken back to the Queens county jail.

MISSING PRINCE FOUND

According to a Chicago Paper "John Orth" is in Ohio.

Chicago, May 12.—The Journal devotes an entire page to the elaboration of an unequivocal statement that it has discovered "the lost John Orth," otherwise Archduke Johann Salvator of Austria, prince of the house of Hapsburg, who disappeared nineteen years ago after marrying Ludmill Stubel, an opera singer.

The Journal says "John Orth" was discovered in Painesville, O., working as a machinist at $15 a week. Previously he had followed this occupation in Grand Rapids, Mich., and Cleveland, O. His reason for making his identity known at this time, the Journal states, was due to his advancing age and his desire that he might be buried in Austria.

Measurements Don't Correspond.

Painesville, Ohio, May 12.—As suddenly as he had come into public notice, when he proclaimed himself the missing Archduke Johann Salvator of Austria, John Salvator, a machinist who has been working here for the last five weeks, disappeared. The machinist is five feet six inches in height. Archduke Salvator was almost six feet tall.

Hoarded Treasure Disclosed.

Mattoon, Ill., May 12.—Knowing that she can not live Mrs. Mary Evans, eighty-two years old, one of the oldest residents of Windsor, has revealed the hiding place of $3,235, which she and her sister, who died last week, have hoarded for the last fifteen years.
During this time they were county charges and supposed to be poverty stricken.

FENCE ENCLOSSES "SCENTED PARK"

Skunk Farm is Originated Near Milford on the Possum Glory Road.

PARK INCLUDES FIVE ACRES

Passersby Hold Their Noses in Anticipation of What Will Come.

The wire fence to enclose the "scented park" to be operated by Drs. C. W. Pagel and John W. Bell, of St. Paul, has been begun by a gang of men working under Warren W. Townsend of St. Paul says the Greensburg Review Review.

This park—established for the unique purpose of raising pole cats—is located on the old farm known as the Medary place. It is on the road that leads from Milford to the Bob Critzeir Mill, and there joins the lower Possum Glory road, out past the bridge and Burney station.

The park includes five acres next to the Pardon orchard, and extends back to the creek, fronting the hills made memorable by "Spring-in-Rock" in the Hoosier Schoolmaster.

The wires of this fence are being put down nearly three feet under ground to prevent the escape of the animals by burrowing out.

The Milfordites are looking forward to the promised prospects of this enterprise, and the doctors, who are promoting it, expect great results. Meantime the people who travel from Milford to Mudsock will hold their breath in eager expectation.

DEATH CHEATED MOTHER'S HEART

Hastening to Meet Paroled Son
Mrs. Drake Is Killed.

DIDN'T SEE ENGINE OF DEATH

Pathetic Tragedy of the Rail Occurs at Columbus, the Irony of Fate
Being Rarely as Directly Pointed Out
As in This Case.—Hurrying to Greet Son's Return From Prison, Aged Woman Is Killed by Cars, Her Son
Even Then Being at Home, Arriving by Another Route.

Columbus, Ind., May 12.—Mrs. Emma Lyon Drake was instantly killed by a Pennsylvania engine near the depot.
Mrs. Drake was expecting her son,
Ralph Drake, home from Michigan City on the train and in company with her little grandson and Mrs. Julia Nading of Flatrock, was hurrying to greet him.

All aglow with anxiety to see her son, who had just been paroled from the Michigan City prison after having served eleven years of a sentence for the killing of Alvy Ward, Mrs. Drake did not see the train on the Cambridge City branch, which was backing by on the side track near the corner of the depot, and just as she stepped forward to cross the tracks she was caught by the rear end of the tender and horribly mangled. Mrs. Nading was also knocked down, but not seriously injured.

Mrs. Drake was seventy-six years old, and a woman with many friends.
She was the mother of Frank, Ralph and Lester Drake the latter of whom in the junior member of the firm of Caldwell & Drake, contractors.

In his anxiety to get home and surprise his mother, the young man did not stop at Indianapolis to wait for the Pennsylvania train, but caught the first electric car, and was at the home of his mother waiting for her when the accident occurred.

The Want Advertisements Are "Humanizing"

When more people come to use and answer Want and For Sale
Advertisements, more people will know each other—

MORE PEOPLE WITH MUTUAL INTEREST WILL MEET—

more people will find channels and opportunities for reciprocal service. Truly, the Daily Republican Want Ads are "humanizing" people—shaming away the scorn of small things, the scorn of "bargaining," of exchanging useful but not used things for useful and usable ones.

BIG TREAT FOR LEPERS

Moving Pictures Give Many at Molokai First View of World.

INTENSE INTEREST SHOWN.

Several of the Unfortunate but Eager Spectators Had Never Seen a City. Result of the Contribution of a Special Fund to Buy a Machine.

One of the most marvelous experiences in the history of the Molokai leper settlement came to the people of that shut-in isolation a short time ago when a moving picture machine was installed in Beretania hall, their public place of assemblage, for their entertainment.

It was not merely that they saw moving pictures for the first time, but for the first time, to a very great number of them, it was their first glimpse into the world beyond the narrow confines of the settlement. Very many of them had never seen a city until they saw those projected on the moving picture screen. Elephants, camels, bears, lions and the other animals of the circus or the zoo were presented to them for the first time. Fire engines, police patrols, moving troops, the thousand and one commonplaces of the picture machine, came to them not only with the force of novelty, but with the effect of something unheard of and undreamed of before.

Some months ago at the suggestion of Superintendent McVeigh of the settlement a movement was started to procure a moving picture machine to be sent to the settlement for the entertainment of the people there. A fund was contributed, the machine and a supply of films were bought, and R. K. Bonine, who has traveled the world over securing strange scenes for moving picture exhibitions, volunteered to go over and install the machine. This he did, and the greatest interest in the matter was felt at the settlement. Every operation of the process of installing the apparatus was watched by nearly the whole population, and when finally the first exhibition was given wonder and excitement knew no bounds.

In addition to the films that have been provided by the donors for the settlement, Mr. Bonine took a large number of his own films to exhibit there for the entertainment of the people. So intensely interested were they that no amount of repetition of the pictures seemed to tire them. At their earnest invitation Mr. Bonine decided to remain another week at the settlement to exhibit his own pictures often enough so that every one in the settlement shall have opportunity to see them and more thoroughly to instruct some of the lepers how to manipulate the machine, so that there need be no interruption in the regularity or frequency of the exhibitions after he leaves.

It is expected that funds for new films will be donated from time to time by the public in Honolulu, so that the people at the settlement will have new moving pictures to look at at intervals. Mr. Bonine says that in all his experience he has never seen such absorbing interest in moving pictures anywhere. —Honolulu Special Correspondence New York Post.

ODD FASHION IN BOUQUETS.

New Yorkers Marvel at an Easter Parade's Floral Pillow.

There were many novel features to the Easter parade in Riverside drive, New York, the other day, but the couple who attracted most attention comprised a middle aged man and woman obviously out to exhibit their spring finery.

What drew the eyes, however, was not so much the man's ultra shiny chapeau, gray spats and accurately pressed frock coat as his companion's enormous peach basket hat and costume of brilliant colors, which no man could describe.

It was a new fashion in bouquets she initiated that left the passersby agape. It suggested nothing so much as the floral pillows once popular at some funerals.

The body of the bouquet was of violets. This was outlined at the top with a double row of lilies of the valley and at the bottom with a large cluster of bright red roses. The entire creation extended from beneath her chin to her waist.

"It's easy to tell where that came from," one startled spectator said to another. "The husband's an undertaker."

GREENLEE WILL GO TO CAROLINA

Former Rushville Man Resigned Important Position With Automobile Factory.

HAD BEEN THERE FOR A YEAR

Had Charge of the Employment Department of the Maxwell-Briscoe Plant at New Castle.

T. M. Greenlee, who has been employed in various capacities at the Maxwell-Briscoe Motor Co. plant for the past year, says the New Castle Courier, has resigned and will leave with his wife in a few days for Rushville for a visit before proceeding to Asheville, N. C., where they will spend some time with his parents, whom he has not seen for about eight years.

Mr. Greenlee, who is an active, energetic and genial gentleman, was with the I. & C. Traction line before coming to New Castle and had charge of the employment and time-keeping on the construction work from Indianapolis to Rushville. He handled several hundred thousands of dollars in this work and left the company with letters of the highest recommendation.

When Mr. Greenlee entered the employ of the Maxwell-Briscoe Co. the local plant was working but 300 men and the payroll was about $3,000 a week. He at first had charge of the employment department and it was a difficult and responsible job in the early days of the organization of the force. The number now employed is about 1,700 and the weekly payroll is close to $25,000.

Mr. Greenlee has two or three good propositions before him, but will not decide on his future work until he has taken a well-earned rest and vacation with his relatives at the North Carolina resort. Both Mr. and Mrs. Greenlee have made many warm friends in New Castle and all regret their departure. They have been active and valuable in the work of the M. E. church.
